

"BOBO TRIBE" ELECTS

Alfred Mitchell Heads Organization at Academy of the Fine Arts

The "Bobo Tribe" of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts held its final meeting of the present school term last evening.

In the election of officers, Alfred Mitchell, winner of the Philadelphia prize at the Academy's spring exhibition, succeeded Alvin Merer as high priest. Donald Sprout succeeded Abe Rattner as priest, and Albert Green was made low priest.

It was resolved at the meeting that all Bobos who go abroad during the summer shall constitute a committee to advance the work of the organization, especially in France. Charles Garner was made chairman of this committee. Graduates now in Europe will be brought into closer contact with the Academy by means of the Bobo tribe's efforts, it is believed.

Next fall a campaign will be initiated to increase the membership of the tribe to include the full student membership. The only requirements are that a man be a student of the Academy, an earnest worker and a "good scout."

WALLA WALLAS TO DANCE

Final Spring Reception to Be Held at Pelham Tonight

The Walla Walla Club will hold its annual spring dance in the Germantown Automobile Club, at Pelham, tonight. This is the last of the series which began last fall to raise funds for the purchase and equipment of a country club.

Harry Waddington, chairman of the dance committee, has made arrangements with the Pennsylvania Railroad to handle the crowd expected by rail. Additional coaches will be attached to all trains running on that division in the early evening.
